One Heart Guide

This prayer stations guide has been created with the One Heart Prayer Guide towards Reconciliation and Oneness. The intention of this Prayer Guide is praying through Christ's prayer in John 17, "Father make them one". We believe the time is right for the Church to take the lead and assist our countries to heal. Let us move from fear, hatred and distrust to rebuilding the ruined walls, as in Nehemiah's time, helping each other to overcome the past and walking in faith, believing that the King of Kings is still empowering us. Encourage participants to attend with a friend, maybe someone not of the same culture as this is a journey of forgiveness, understanding and becoming one.

Go to page 14 for printable versions of prayer station instructions to use in your prayer room

I chose you before I formed you in the womb Jeremiah 1:5

Creator God:

In bright light and dull darkness
In the energy of each day and the rest that comes with night

We remember the goodness of God

In the heavens high above our heads
In waters that run deep around the world

We remember the goodness of God

In solid land and flowing seas
In vivid flowers and fruit laden-trees

We remember the goodness of God

In the rising and setting of the sun and the cycles of the seasons
In the patterns of the shining stars

We remember the goodness of God

In oceans teeming with fish
In skies filled with birds

We remember the goodness of God

In a world filled with animal life
And in ourselves as human beings

We remember the goodness of God

And God looked and saw all that he had made, and indeed it was very, very good.

In rest and reflection, in wonder and worship

We remember the goodness of God.

Amen

Acts of Separation

- Slavery in South Africa existed from 1653 in the Dutch Cape Colony until the abolition of slavery in 1834. Land was dispossessed from that time onward and Khoikhoi men and women became incorporated into colonial society as low-status servants.
- Laws and regulations that the Dutch brought in, in 1788 that separated White people from Black people. Continuing after the British occupation of 1795.
- Land and livestock dispossession that resulted in wars between the colonial settlers and Khoikhoi, San, Xhosa, Zulu, Sotho and a number of other ethnic groups.
- Racist legislation; The Parliamentary Voters Registration Act of 1887, The Franchise and Ballot Act that was passed in 1892 and The Glen Grey Act of 1894.
- Black people not included when SA became a Union in 1910. Architecture of the Union buildings depicts only English and Afrikaans White South Africans and not Black, Coloured, Khoi, San and Indian South Africans. Rejected our fellow South Africans.
- Land act of 1913. - Many acts of segregation and Apartheid that came after that Act.
 - Deprived from the right to own land in their own country.
 - Major socio-economic repercussions turning people of colour from independent people to dependent people.
 - Ruthless manner in which the Land Act was imposed.
 - Many evictions and abuse through this Act to get cheap forced labour.
 - Made to feel like outcasts in their own country.
 - Ill treatment of the Indian and Chinese workers who were brought to SA as migrant labourers.
 - Oppressive legislation - The 1927 Native Administration Act. The Natives (Urban Areas) Amendment Act of 1930. The 1936 Native Trust and Land Act. The Prohibition of Mixed Marriages Act, of 1949. The Population Registration Act of 1950. The Group Areas Act of 1950. The Natives Urban Areas Act of 1952. The Separate Amenities Act of 1953. The Native Labour Act of 1953.
 - Under Apartheid representation of Black, Coloured, Khoi, San and Indian black voters was ended.
 - Cattle culling. Loss of 87% of the land. Homelands. Unfair taxes.
 - Many murdered under the evil system of Apartheid.
 - Inferior education. Forced to be educated in Afrikaans.
 - Pass laws. Detentions. Imprisonments. Tortures. Violence.

Prayer of Repentance for Racism

(Anneke Rabe)

Father, I submit to You

I stand before You and every black person across the world. I stand in the gap as an intercessor and as a (white woman). I stand like Daniel stood on behalf of his people - for white people of the past and present. I also stand in the gap for those white people whose hearts are hard and who will never say sorry. Have mercy on us Lord.

I ask forgiveness today to all black people. We, as white people have sinned against you, over and over again. Today we repent unconditionally.

I ask forgiveness for slavery and colonialism.

I ask forgiveness for the forced removal of people from their homes, lands, countries and continents

I ask forgiveness for the way slaves were treated by white people across the world. I ask forgiveness for the land that was dispossessed and for the way black men and women became incorporated into colonial society as low-status servants.

I ask forgiveness for the white domination and the human rights violations.

I ask forgiveness to the other countries in Africa for the way we as white South Africans looked down on you.

I ask forgiveness of the plundering of Africa by white people.

I ask forgiveness for all oppressive legislation.

I ask forgiveness for the mutilations

I ask forgiveness for the way Africa was cut up during colonialism

I ask forgiveness for the way we treated you. I repent of the pride of the white people. I repent that we thought that we are better than you. It is a sin. I repent for the way that we shamed, humiliated and oppressed you, your mothers, your fathers, your brothers, your sisters, your uncles, your aunts and your children. I ask forgiveness for the derogatory names we called you. I ask forgiveness for not treating black leaders with respect.

Lord, forgive us for racist jokes.

I ask forgiveness for the killings.

I ask forgiveness for the inferior education.

I ask forgiveness for the pain, anguish, the fear and shock that you had to endure by the hands of white people.

I ask forgiveness for our ignorance.

I ask forgiveness for the detentions.

I ask forgiveness for the imprisonments.
I ask forgiveness for the tortures.
I ask forgiveness for the violence.

As a woman and a mother, I repent on behalf of all white women that influenced our husbands and children to be racist and to treat you harshly.

I ask forgiveness that not more of us stand for justice. I ask forgiveness to you and to God that our racism even entered our churches. I ask forgiveness that those of us who know God do not do more to reflect to you the love of Christ in our words and actions.

Forgive us for the many that turned away from the Gospel, for the way we, as white people brought it. I thank God and those of you who stayed true to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Lord, I pray that You will open our eyes to those things we as white people continue to do that still cause offence and hurt to others.

I would also like to ask forgiveness to every nation on earth for the pride and atrocities of white people towards black people through all the centuries.

Lord, I acknowledge Your Word as the supreme truth and Your Word says there is only 'one race' – the human race, made from one man, Adam – forgive us that we made the colour of our skins the reason to hate those that do not look like us.

Lord, please quiet the blood of those who died because of racist injustices.

Lord, please forgive us for not doing more to understand and implement true restitution. Lord, please show us the way. Lord, please bring conviction of the sin of racism across the world. Lord, lead Your church into repentance. Help us to lament with our black brothers and sisters and to not always justify ourselves. Help us to do more to seek Your healing and restoration for the pain of the past.

Lord, please turn the tide, root out racism and heal Africa and the nations. Lord, make us truly One in You.

Your kingdom come, your will be done in Africa and in all the nations on the earth

I ask this in the name of Jesus Christ
Amen

Instructions:

- Martin Luther King Jr. had a dream of unity, love and equality.
- He made a difference, he was the change he wanted to see, he practiced what he preached, he was bold enough to share his heart and dream, he marched with people and spoke love and kindness.
- Do you have a dream for how the world (your home, your community, your church, your city, your country) could be different?
- Write your hope/prayer on a post it note and stick it onto the giant 'dream bubble'.

Love Letter

And may you have the power to understand, as all God's people should, how wide, how long, how high, and how deep his love is. May you experience the love of Christ, though it is too great to understand fully. Then you will be made complete with all the fullness of life and power that comes from God.

Ephesians 3:18 - 19
